DIVINE CALVE DELIGHTS

BRILLIANT ASSEMBLAGE.

Is Most Gracious And Responds Generously To Several Encores.

Calve came and conquered. Probably never before has this section witnessed a more select and representative assemblage of people in a local playhouse than were assembled at Wilman's opera house, Seabreeze, Saturday night to listen to the incomparable, the divine Calve.

To attempt to give those so unfortunate as to be absent any sort of conception of her wonderful voice, her inimitable style and entrancing technique would be sheer folly. Only those who heard her; only those who both heard and saw her act out those soul-thrilling flights of song could realize her wonderful God-given gifts.

There is but one Calve, and fortunate is he to whom the privilege of listening to her enrapturing song comes.

Calve was vivacious and most gracious from the minute she emerged from the wings till she had responded to the last encore, and her audience was the while entranced.

It is lamentable that the Wilman's was not packed. Manager Burgman felt that this chance of a life time to hear one of the world's greatest song birds would meet with generous approval. To give popular rates and pay out for such an attraction would be impossible. He wanted to give the Daytona district a great treat, and confidently believed that they would pay for it. Alas!

Nearly, if not quite as many heard Calve at Manager Burgman's expense as gave returns. Surrounding the opera house was a swarming throng of people who listened to the queen of song as complacently and with as little perturbation as if they had paid for box seats. Mme. Calve several times responded to encores, singing "Swanee River," to the delight of everybody. Her rendition of "Dixie" was most inspiring, and elicited prolonged applause.

Perhaps her masterpiece, Habanera (Carmen), showed her at her best. She was most dramatic and captivating withal.

Is Claimed by Death.

Mrs. Cora M. Serviss died Tuesday at the Daytona Hospital where she had recently been brought in the hope of restoring her to health. Mr. and Mrs. Serviss had been south about three weeks but they postponed coming too long. Every method known to medical science was employed to save the patient but they proved to be of no avail. She was taken seriously ill about a week after reaching Daytona and was then taken to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Serviss were from Newburg, N. Y. She leaves a husband, one sister and numerous relatives in New York state.

Mr. Serviss left Daytona Wednesday for Brandon, Vt., where the interment will take place.

Buried in Pinewood.

The remains of Mrs. Rebecca H. Garland arrived from New York Tuesday accompanied by Miss O. R. Garland and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Garland, of Los Angeles, Cal., who joined Miss Garland at Jacksonville.

The party arrived by the 11:40 a. m. train, which was forty minutes late, but as they were not expected until 1:45 p. m., and all arrangements had been made for that time, no change was made and the funeral cortege left the railroad depot shortly after the arrival of that train and proceeded to Pinewood cemetery where Mrs. Garland's husband, J. M. Garland, who died about two years ago, is buried.

The casket was opened to allow the relatives and friends a last view of the departed and Rev. D. H. Rutter, pastor of the M. E. church of this city, conducted a brief burial service.

Big Success Was Bazaar.

The ladies of the Congregational church made a great success of their bazaar and supper which were held Tuesday afternoon and evening. Their fancy articles were artistic and attractive and while the ladies did not sell out entirely they sold sufficient to raise quite a fund.

Their supper was pronounced by everybody to be both sumptuous and appetizing and those who ate say they enjoyed a rare treat.

The orange blossoms, flowers and homemade candies were in demand and helped to swell the funds. All in all the ladies may feel proud of their success.

Dr. Bell and wife of Atlanta, and Dr. Isham and wife enjoyed a Dutch luncheon Tuesday evening, the guests of Commodore Charles Waterhouse of Fairview. The evening was very enjoyably spent at games and entertainment, Dr. Bell being a clever amateur sleight-of-hand performer.

AUTOMOBILE PARADE WEDNESDAY.

Everybody With a Horseless Flyer Invited To Participate In The Festivities.

TROPHIES FOR DECORATED CARS.

Chairman White, of the Racing Committee, has arranged for the parade on Wednesday next. The arrangement is to start from the City Hall, on Beach street, at 9 a. m.

It is earnestly desired that everybody having automobiles join in this parade. Let there be good natured rivalry in an effort to outdo your neighbor in decorating your car.

The Daytona Daily News, Lesene the Photographer, and the F. E. C. A. A. each offer a trophy for the first, second and third best decorated automobiles.

If you will take part in the parade send in your name to Chairman White and he will issue you a card, giving you place and number in the parade. This is important in order to systematize matters and prevent any hitch.

The parade ground has been mapped out as follows: From the City Hall they will move South on Beach to Bellevue; West on Bellevue to Ridgewood, North on Ridgewood to Fairview; East on Fairview to Beach; South on Beach to Volusia; West on Volusia to Palmetto; South on Palmetto to Orange; East on Orange to South Bridge; thence to Peninsula; North by Peninsula drive to Seabreeze avenue; East on Seabreeze avenue to Grandview; North to Ocean boulevard; West on Ocean boulevard to Valley street; South on Valley street to Seabreeze avenue, thence to Automobile Club House by Peninsula Drive and Halifax avenue.

If everybody with automobiles respond to this invitation the parade will be one of the most imposing spectacles ever witnessed in this part of Florida—in all Florida for that matter. It will make a parade miles in length and ought to give lots of snap and go to the big carnival.

OFFICIALS ON ROAD INSPECTION.

Will Accept Cannon's Work On DeLand-Daytona Road And Pay For It.

BETTER ROADS ARE COMING.

Dr. G. W. Fisher DeLand; J. G. Cade, Enterprise; R. D. Brooke, Osteen, three of the five members of the Board of County Commissioners of Volusia county, were in the city Tuesday, having come over on an official inspection of the DeLand-Daytona road. They report the road in good condition, and announced their intention of accepting it. The other two commissioners, Messrs. Bradshaw and Owen have been over the road.

It is very doubtful whether Contractor Cannon broke even on his road contract. It is a road which has cost a pile of money to get where it is, but it is thought now that it is in such shape as to be more easily maintained in the future. Its present good condition demonstrates its value both to Daytona and to DeLand, and it assures one thing—the road is a fixture as a hard-surface thoroughfare.

The Commissioners expressed their approbation of hard surface extension, and it is safe to say that but for the depleted condition of the road fund this sort of road building would be pushed in several directions.

In an interview with the Commissioners, Chairman Fisher said it is up to Commissioner Owen to put the road to the Brevard county line in passable condition, and as Mr. Owen is in hearty sympathy with the good road move, out it is a safe prediction that there will be something doing in Mr. Owen's bailiwick this spring and summer.

The Commissioners said they hope to see the road extended on the north to the St. Johns county line to connect the proposed hard-surface road which John Anderson, of The Alcazar, St. Augustine, is working for so enthusiastically. Mr. Anderson will never rest until he has hard-surface roads radiating from St. Augustine like spider webs.

It is only a question of a few years till all these gaps will be filled, and motor cars can pass quickly back and forth from St. Augustine to Daytona.

A BRILLIANT SOCIAL FUNCTION.

Ladies Hold Reception At The Foster Residence On South Ridgewood Avenue.

Among the recent social functions of particular interest was the reception given Saturday afternoon, at from 3 to 5 o'clock, by Mesdames A. B. Foster, Leonard O. Smith, Edward Marrener and Walter Sillick, at the handsome winter home of Major and Mrs. Foster on South Ridgewood avenue.

The afternoon was bright and balmy and the reception was largely attended, between 175 and 200 being present, in fact during the hours mentioned, there was a constant stream of elegantly gowned ladies passing to and from the residence.

The four ladies tendering the reception received the guests as they entered, being assisted in this pleasant duty by Mrs. A. H. Kling, Mrs. Blount and Miss Amy Sengstak. The long room in which the ladies were received was beautifully decorated with pink roses, while the decorations of the dining room and table were in white and green, white sweet pea blooms and orange blossoms contrasting with beautiful ferns, etc.

The Mesdames Margaret and Louise Murdock, McKinney and Hughes and Mesdames Ball and Adams served the refreshments while Miss Frances Folsom had charge of the punch and Miss Dugan looked after the ices.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Clarendon orchestra, and the afternoon was in every way one of the most delightful events of the season.

ATTRACTIONS WORTH

YOUR WHILE TO SEE.

Suggestions Meant For Visiting Strangers Within Daytona's Precincts.

The city is full of visitors, many of whom are here for the first time. Give them the time of their lives and play fair with them; it is the best possible advertisement.

Those who are not acquainted with Daytona and her surrounding attractions may be interested to learn of a few attractions quite accessible by bicycle, carriage, automobile or boat.

South by land is a very picturesque drive to New Smyrna with its historic ruins. The road is fine on south to beyond Oak Hill, which is on Mosquito Lagoon. The run from New Smyrna to Hawks Park is very interesting.

On the peninsula side the beach offers a delightful spin to Ponce Park with its giant Government lighthouse. You are at liberty to visit it any day except Sunday, and a view from its storm balcony is a sight worth seeing. A lovely panorama awaits the beholder. You look out at the horizon over the Atlantic on the east, south the Inlet and Coronado beach; turning west your eye sweeps the Hillsboro river, New Smyrna, Spruce creek, Turnbull bay, Port Orange, the Halifax river and Daytona, if the atmosphere be clear.

A drive north carries you through the delightful towns of Holly Hill and Ormond, to Bulow, to No. 9, and along the shores of the Tomoka. West you can visit DeLand, and from there enjoy side trips.

By water you have the advantage of boat trips south to the fishing grounds about the Inlet to Turtle Mound and to many towns and settlements. Go north by boat and don't fail to take the Tomoka trip. You will see lazy alligators basking in the sunshine, and long-legged birds wading about the marshes in search of a dinner of fish.

These are all well worth seeing, and a trip to Daytona is not complete without it. When you have seen this the races will be put on, and with autos making more than two miles a minute on the beach, and the heavens above alive with aeroplanes careering around you will be given a pretty fair sample of Daytona's spirit, speed and quality.

Sampson Is Indicted.

The Federal Grand Jury sitting at Jacksonville Tuesday indicted John Sampson, the confessed eggman, on the charge of being implicated in the Daytona postoffice robbery.
